

satellite radio should be able to air any content the customers wants including the weather and traffic for any area.if the local radio stations don't like that, let them (the local stations) provide better content so the listeners will want to listen to the local station. i also believe that we should be able to listen to what ever WE choose NOT what someone else says.